Overseas Research Participant Pledge (For International Students)

I hereby pledge to comply with the terms as indicated below in the course of my participation in overseas research activities supported by the Leading Graduate Program in Primatology and Wildlife Science (hereinafter "PWS"), Kyoto University (hereinafter the "University").

1. I fully understand the intents of the support provided by the University. I will devote myself to research activities while in the host country.
2. While overseas, I will comply with the laws and regulations of the host country. I will also behave responsibly as a student of the University.
3. My participation in these research activities has been approved by my guarantor (supervisor).
4. My participation has been approved by my supervisor of the section/laboratory which I am affiliated with. In addition, I will also submit a notification to my section/laboratory with the appropriate form(s) as designated by each section/laboratory.
5. I am solely responsible for dealing with any accidents or illnesses occurring during my trip from and to Japan. I will also notify the University staff in charge of any such occurrences.
6. I am solely responsible for any liability for damage to property or person caused by my own negligence during my trip from and to Japan.
7. I will enroll in overseas traveler's insurance as designated by the University.
8. I understand that the University may decide to cancel or postpone the research activities or require me to return to Japan, in light of public safety and other conditions in the host country or region. In such cases I will act promptly in accordance to instructions given by the University, and will not hold the University responsible for any loss or damage incurred as a result thereof.
9. I will complete all procedures required by the University by the due date. These procedures include the payment of a cancellation fee.
10. After returning to Japan, I will actively respond to requests from PWS for assistance in promotional activities.
