Through the behavior observations and recognition experiments on chimpanzees and bonobos, the purpose of this course was to learn the basis for the comparative cognitive science research. This Comparative Cognitive Science Course has become a very good experience for me. I would like to make use of this experience when I research.    Fig. Yoshie on the tower
