In Japan monkey centre, I joined zoo/museum course. I had lectures and did specimen training, environmental enrichment and so on. «Specimen training» I changed formalin of the liquid immersion specimen into new one. And I filled the plastic pack with liquid immersion specimens. «Environmental enrichment» I made and installed a tool of the organization where got feed when they opened a cover.(Fig. 1) I was able to know the work called the curator concretely. In addition, I could grasp only some problems that the zoo had, and I felt if I work in an aquarium I will have to think about this problems in future.
