It is very important for field works to learn knowledge and skills adapted to the environment of nature. Sasagamine Field course is conducted for studying these fundamentals in the Kyoto University hut.     We studied how to read maps and make into knots of ropes through some practices. In Hiuchi hiking, We saw red leaves and snow, I enjoyed the mountain from autumn to winter. And, We ate very delicious cooking every dinner.
